The Wollaston Library Conditions of Use.

The Wollaston Library is committed to providing an inclusive, respectful, safe, and supportive environment for all library users. By accessing the library space, services or borrowing materials, you agree to follow the conditions of use outlined below.

Library Members

- By completing the library membership form you agree to abide by all terms and conditions associated with membership at The Wollaston Library (Library).
- You will be responsible for all items borrowed from the library; lost and/or damaged items may incur a replacement fee.
- Your borrowing privileges will be suspended while you have an overdue library item, fee or charge.
- You are responsible for ensuring that your contact details are kept up to date in the library system.
- Library items must not be removed from the building unless they are registered as a loan.

Public Computer and Photocopier Usage

- Public computer, photocopying and scanning services will be available in the library from the time of opening until 5 minutes before closure.
- Library users must comply to the Commonwealth of Australia, Copyright Act 1968 where reproduction of works and copying of published editions is undertaken using library equipment, including photocopiers, scanners and printers.
- Library members may access public computers for the purpose of accessing digital information resources, providing their library account is free from outstanding fees and charges.
- Public computer users must abide by the WA Classification (Publications, Film and Computer Games) Enforcement Act 1996, which bans the use of the Internet to transmit restricted material to a minor or to make restricted material available to a minor.
- Public computer users must not knowingly access sites containing objectionable material under the WA Classification (Publications, Film and Computer Games) Enforcement Act 1996. Users who disregard this will be prohibited from using the library service.
- A copy of the WA Classification (Publications, Film and Computer Games) Enforcement Act 1996 is available by clicking HERE provided or via legislation.wa.gov.au.

Conditions of Use Acceptance

- Library users agree to abide by regulations, guidelines conditions, and as determined by the University of Divinity, Anglican Diocese of Perth and Wollaston Theological College.
- Any library user attending the library must behave in a responsible and considerate manner.
- Library conditions of use are subject to change without notice.
